- Advance payments, equal to the total program price, are required for study abroad programs.
- The due dates and the breakdown of payment deposits are specified above. Any outstanding student account balance must be paid by confirmation date. (This means that if you have charges unrelated to the study abroad program, they will be deducted from monies paid toward the trip and your participation will not be allowed until the balance is paid in full.)
- On April 15, 2019, all semester charges, including study abroad charge, will appear on your student bill.
- All summer 2019 schedules must be confirmed by noon on May 10, 2019.
- If space is available, payment can be made, and enrollment permitted at a later date with approval of the instructor and the Education Abroad office. Tuition and related fees are not deferrable to the next term for study abroad courses.

WITHDRAWAL: In the case of a withdrawal of a participant, the charge to the student will be at least a $100.00 non-refundable cancellation fee plus any costs already incurred by the University of Alabama on behalf of the participant. This will be determined based upon the date of withdrawal and costs incurred for the specific program. If UA has incurred no costs, a refund will be credited to the participant’s student account. Financial Aid Student Note: Students wishing to use federal financial aid for study abroad must meet with a Financial Aid Advisor to discuss available options and to assure that funds are available by the May 10, 2019 deadline for final payment. The initial deposit of $250.00 must be paid by the participant. Enrollment must be at least half time to receive federal funding. Any portion of the balance due that is not covered by financial aid will be due by the dates specified above. The student is responsible for the costs incurred even if no aid is awarded.

- Obtain a signed copy of this document from the EA office and take it to Financial Aid to determine if you have aid eligibility to apply to these costs.
